TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- The workshop fee is £15 for the day. But all attendees of workshops or auditions must be members of ESOS. This ensures your child is covered by our Public Liability insurance. Annual membership is £10.
- Children must be no younger than 8 and no older than 21 to attend.
- Children must bring a packed lunch and ample water. Regular breaks will be scheduled and squash and biscuit snacks provided.
- We reserve the right to exclude children for disruptive behaviour.
- All children aged under 16 yrs must be dropped off and collected from the venue by a responsible adult.
- Fees are non refundable unless we cancel the session.
- You agree to photographs of the workshop sessions being used for ESOS publicity purposes.
- Children should wear comfortable clothes and jazz shoes or trainers.
 - NB: We will be using a 2nd hall ½ a mile walk away for one of the disciplines. Children must have warm outdoor clothing and suitable footwear for this short walk. The children will be escorted as a group between the 2 halls by licensed chaperones.
- Mobile phones and other electronic devices must be turned off during the class.
- We must be notified of any medical conditions or allergies in advance on the attached form.
- The children participate in the activities at their own risk and ESOS will not be held responsible in the event of an injury.
- Personal belongings are the child's responsibility and in the event of loss ESOS will not be held responsible.
- The pastoral care of the children is provided by a team of licensed chaperones with enhanced CRB checks. The trainers employed by ESOS are professionals, experienced in both musical theatre and working with children.
- Attendance does not guarantee success at the subsequent audition but we hope it will help (and will be delighted if it does!).

We look forward to welcoming you to the workshop!
